Christmas Party

Another successful party with lots of folks I have not seen since last year. Good food and good company.

Showed off my attempt at pen making to Bruce R. He gave me a kind word between bites of cake & shrimp dip.

Danny L. was working the crowd for next year's dues and Dick H. was looking for a new 1st Vice President.

Barbara Dill told us all to look for her tea pot on the cover of the next issue of the AAW journal.

We had some nice "Best of the year" Show & Tell to view. How do you turn a tea cup from one piece of wood?

Happy Holidays and may you get every tool you wished for during the new year.

Shows Coming Out Of

February 15-19: IWCS's Southeast Regional Winter Woodfest Meeting, Eustis, Florida will feature a number of special presentations: wood identification (leaf, bark, wood) sessions, wood & log carving, woodturning (segmented, mini, goblets, end grain) demonstrations, and craft activities (sewing, quilting, etc) as well as entertainment and recreational activities. Please feel free to contact Tom Kinney: cell phone 630-667-8468 or home phone 352-237-3114. You can also email at thomaskinney@msn.com.

Club is looking for a 1st Vice President for the year.

Shows Coming In VA:

May 5-6: Arts in the Park, Richmond

Sept 15-16: VA Turners Symposium, Fishersville

Pay your Club Dues

ASPA

Pen Turners: We had a good turn out for the Jan meeting. Of the 13 blanks given out, 11 returned as finished pens. Phil Duffy's was judged as the best and received a finished pen.

Rick gave a demo on bullet pen making, from 30 ca kits to 410 shotgun shells. Word of caution: Be sure the shells are spent before drilling out the primers. Phil also received a 410 spent shotgun shell to turn into a pen.

Our guest, Tim Wise, makes pens in his spare time, he thinks about them all the time. How to make knife looking pens, can I do this, maybe this other shape would work? Majestic's are his pens of choice and when he checks his notes, the best idea is made into another pen.

Next meeting will be March 8. Bring an unfinished, turned pen blank as we will be discussing finishes beyond friction polish.

Free Tree

Sorry I haven't done this before now, but this tree (about 40" at the base, maple with some ambrosia). is still on the ground if anyone wants some. (Photo damaged) It is a rather large tree but with some patience it is manageable. Please call if you are interested and I will give you the specifics Ray Melton 814-5712

I have a yellow poplar tree available for turning, lumber, or firewood. There are two logs 18 in diameter by 15 ft long, and 15 in diameter by 17 ft long. If anyone would like all or part, let me know. I can cut the logs for turning or firewood. The logs will have to be hauled or cut in place for lumber. Don Hayes Studley,
