

Richmond Woodturners

Newsletter August 2020

Last month, the meeting took place via Zoom on July 20th and hosted by Dave Bushman. After a short business discussion, several Show and Tell turnings were displayed during the Zoom session.

A video followed made by Bob Silkensen entitled Bob Silkensen Makes Rude Osolnik Style Candlesticks. This video is available on the org's Website. During his demo, Bob refers to the Richmond Woodturners October 2012 Newsletter which describes how Bob Rosand created his style candle sticks. Excellent reading and excellent video.

Also see: <https://vimeo.com/209442817> which is a video of Rude Osolnik describing his turning experiences and highlights several of his works .

The photos below are snapshots from that video.

Candleholder has the general form of 1/3 top, 2/3 bottom and the diameter is 2" top and 2.5" bottom. There is also a 1" waste at the bottom.

use the roughing gouge to round up the blank between centers.

Then put a tenon on one end, mount in a 4 jaw chuck.

Mark out the waste at the chuck end, with a parting tool mark out the diameter of the top (2") and the bottom (2.5"), and mark 1/3 from the top.

Taper the end grain at the top of candlestick a bit. Drill the hole for the candle insert. I use a 5/8" Outside Diameter bronze bushing but, a 1/2" copper pipe section will work too.

Part deeper into the skinny part (not all the way) but will eventually be 1/4" diameter and blend in the taper with a spindle roughing gouge or a regular spindle gouge.

Blend in the top & bottom tapers. I make a set of 12", 10", 8" tall. Sand to #600, I made this set black with shoe polish and spray lacquer.

Part off. Concave the bottom so it will sit on the edges

Drill a hole in the bottom with a 1" drill bit using a jig to hold it steady. Or use your hands to hold it steady.

Fill the hole with some sort of weight. I use shotgun shell pellets, even fishing weights will work. Fill with CA glue (or whatever).

Cut a piece of felt or cork to cover the bottom and glue in place.

Optional: Wax candles melt so make a wooden candle, usually out of Holly for a dark candlestick or dark wood for a lighter candlestick. Blank is 3/4 square and 12" long (taper is 10"). Using pin jaws to mount the blank, measure & mark the diameter of the candle insert. Speed out the taper to the top 2/3. Bring it down to 1/2" and taper to the tail stock. Round up the 1/3 at the head stock to 1/2" mark off 10" and cut off. Mount a drill chuck into the head stock and drill a small hole into the top of the candle. Glue a small piece of string into the hole for a wick. [The hole drilled for weight could be formed on the lathe or drill press earlier in the process. Color choices for the wooden candles is a personal matter. Editor]

President's Message

Our next club meeting will be this week: Thursday August 20 @ 6:30. Our monthly meetings will continue to be in the style of online interactive remote for the next several months until we know that we can do otherwise. While not the best situation, it is something that we can do. Since that continues to be an unknown, there are many national turners getting the equipment and learning the know-how to do interactive remote demonstrations. Their numbers are increasing every month. If you saw the AAW Symposium in July, you saw the quality of their presentations.

I hope you all enjoyed Bob Silkensen's demonstration featuring Rude Osolnik style of candlesticks. We are very fortunate to have many excellent turners like Bob in our club. The point is that any individual can do a demonstration, a virtual show & share, etc. Set-up does not have to be overly complicated. Figure out what you can share. Lay it out and drop a line to our VP/ Program Director Dave Bushman or myself.

This month, Frank Penta will be joining us from North Carolina for what promises to be an excellent demo. Frank likes to hear from the audience, so come prepared to ask questions.

For those club members who have not yet taken the opportunity to take part in our live remote meetings, I strongly encourage you to do so. If you have questions or concerns, please reach out to me, Jared or anyone of our board members, so we can help you join in. All current members will be sent a link to join in.

To my knowledge, most if not all regional in-person symposiums have been cancelled in the immediate future. I am now learning of a "Woodturners Worldwide Online Symposium" arranged by Matthew Deighton in Utah with an impressive demonstrators and vendors lineup for next month: Sept 24-26. Feel free to check it out at: <https://woodturnersworldwide.com> It appears that demonstrations are recorded ahead of time while demonstrators will be on hand to answer questions live, and some recorded videos will be available for viewing for at least two weeks after the show for registrants.

On another front: As the year marches on, our usual November elections period is fast approaching at which time, six key positions will be available for candidate elections. Candidates & volunteers are needed. Membership in an organization doesn't mean just showing up to a meeting or demo, taking in the information and leaving. Each member should be willing to give back, not just a select few. Some give back behind the scenes while others are up front. The bottom line is that more hands make for lighter workload and can make the difference in the future and quality of any organization. We need to get more hands involved. Now is the time to step up. If you have any inkling or desire to help your club continue and flourish, please let me or any board member know. Lee Scarbrough is our Nominations Chairman.

Officer and Board positions open for renewal and voting late this year for January installations are: President, Secretary, Activities Director, Information/ Web Dir. Newsletter Editor, and Past President #2.

In closing, I would urge everyone to keep their chin up! We will beat this temporary problem and things will get back to normal. Please attend as many virtual club events as possible. Members putting these on and other organization efforts, spend a fair amount of time on them, so please take advantage of them. Be one to not surrender to the apathy of doing nothing.

Keep active, keep turning, and stay safe.

Bill Buchanan

My name is Rick Fox and I live in Richmond (now in the Bellevue section). We just moved into our new house on Newport Ave and are doing some renovation. We opened a wall by the front staircase and now need to match the original 1936 banister and, especially, the newel post on the side that used to have a wall against it. We'd very much like to retain and match the original newel post on the other side but are not having any luck finding something from salvage to match.

I have the honor of working with Rick Judd (from Albuquerque, NM) and know his avocation with turning so I asked him for advice. He suggested I reach out to you (and said to give you his regards :-). I'm wondering if you might know of anyone locally who could help us, in a reasonably economic way, to achieve our vision? I'd welcome and appreciate any thoughts you have by email or feel free to call me on my mobile at (804) 683-3451.

Thanks so much!
